

CORA·MURPHY

Frequently Asked Questions:

Do I need painting experience to join your painting workshops?

NO! My Level 1 Adventures in Abstract Art & Abstracting the Landscape workshops are open to absolute beginners and those with a little or a lot of painting experience - the only thing you really need for these classes are an open mind and a willingness to have fun while painting.

My Level 2 Workshops – 'Your Big, Brilliant Abstracts' & 'Re-Enchanting the Connection' have been designed specifically for people who have already taken a workshop of mine. So they're a great 'follow-on' for folks who loved the level 1 workshops.

Are materials provided?

Oh YES, and how! I believe in good materials and generosity – you shouldn't 'scrimp' on yourself, so I won't either! Paints, inks, (great quality) canvasses and anything else you might need are provided. All you need to bring is you!

What do I need to bring?

See above! I do ask participants to bring items that are inspiring to them - this might be a photo, a shell or a piece of cotton! I will be in touch with you about this before your workshop – so you have nothing to worry about!

Dietary requirements:

A great yummy, healthy lunch is provided on Day 1 of your workshop. Participants bring their own packed lunch on Day 2, for ease – as you'll be busy! There will be lots and lots of food, fruit, snacks and tea, coffee and all manner of unlimited refreshments throughout the workshop. There are treats too – but not really bad ones! I'll be in touch before the workshop about any dietary requirements you might have.

Is there a waitlist?

There is! If you would like to join a workshop that is 'sold out' please email me to cora@coramurphy.com to join. I must advise though, cancellations are very rare.

Cancellation policy?

In the rare event that there is a cancellation, my policy is as follows:
Cancellation up to 4 weeks before – 100% refund
Cancellation 2 week before – 50% refund
Fee is non refundable if cancellation is made 1 week or less to the workshop. However, I am happy to offer a full refund if I can fill the place.

When will I get workshop details?

Once you confirm purchase of your place on a workshop, you will receive an automatic email confirming your purchase. I will then drop you an email to say “You're in! Thanks a billion!”. I will be in touch again a couple of weeks in advance of your workshop with details regarding the workshop format, what to expect, what to bring etc. At that point, I will also be checking in with you regarding any specific dietary or other requirements you might have.

I will also confirm the workshop venue and location, advising you about parking and public transportation links. If you have any queries, at any time – please do email me to: cora@coramurphy.com or call me on 087 327 5131.

Thank you so much for your interest in my workshops.
