

CORA·MURPHY

Workshops Feedback:

"I came with no expectations and loved every minute. As someone who hasn't painted before, I feel inspired to continue. I love Cora's teaching style. It's encouraging and liberating. It felt like a safe environment to paint and experiment."

Orla, Abstracting the Landscape, September 2016

'Exceeded my expectations many times over. I enjoyed the instruction, the adventure, trying new things, learning about new styles & artists and meeting the other lovely people in the group. A painting course with Cora is an eye opening and inspiring adventure. Her teaching style is friendly and enthusiastic, everyone – no matter their experience can and will take something from Cora's class"

Maria, Abstracting the Landscape, September 2016

"Cora! Hilarious, charismatic and an entertaining teacher. I also enjoyed every bit of painting and visiting the galleries)"

Fiona, Adventures in Abstract Art, Dublin, September 2016

Cora is a consummate professional who entertains in tandem with teaching in an open expressive and individual manner – offering everybody their own piece of advice. I thoroughly enjoyed the workshop from start to finish"

Katrina, Adventures in Abstract Art, Sligo, July 2016

“Over the last 2 days, I have overcome my idea of what painting is and realised what painting is to me! I feel the workshop was wonderful in regards to value for money. So much equipment to use and food and information and tours! Thank you for sharing your love of painting”

Inma, Adventures in Abstract Art, Cork 2016

“The food was fantabulous! Teaching was great, the demos really showed what I was looking for. Having materials readily available and being able to use them freely was really great. I absolutely loved my Summer School experience!

Joy, Summer School 2016

“Excellent value for money. I love having the freedom to try stuff and not being under pressure to do a certain thing! I am painting differently now and think I might have found my style! Thank you, I had a great time – painted loads, laughed loads too. I would do it again in a heart beat”

Karen, Summer School 2016

“Cora has a really great way of ‘getting’ what I’m curious about and helps me to get ‘unstuck’! She’s the most generous teacher / mentor. I was inspired by it all and certainly got the result I was looking for. Thank you so much again”

Fiona, Summer School 2016

‘Cora is a natural communicator and facilitator. She is enthusiastic and generous in both her guidance and knowledge. I strongly recommend Cora to anyone out there trying to develop or re-ignite their art work. The workshop provided me with a great opportunity to challenge my creativity. We were encouraged to try out different ideas and materials. It was a very enjoyable, informative, and interactive course! I met interesting, like-minded people, created lots of different artwork of my own, and my mind was bursting with creative inspiration and nourishment by the end of the two days. It was great fun and overall a lovely experience!’

Celina, Adventures in Abstract Art, Cork

” The painting workshop in Italy with Cora was a beautiful adventure and I would love to do it again It was a fantastic artistic and human experience – very well organised, the Palazzo was out of this world and the facilities were great. Cora made sure to have a lot of different materials for us to explore. We also had 1-2-1 meetings with Cora that were very beneficial to keep up the momentum and to break barriers. Thanks to Cora’s encouragement and support I managed to make a BIG painting (120 x180cms pictured!). The workshop really helped me to develop my art skills, to try new things and to look at nature and scenery from a different perspective.”
